

The founder of Le Figaro newspaper built Hotel Du Cap Eden Roc in 1869 for writers seeking inspiration. During the course of history, however, the hotel has become famous for the celebrities it has hosted: The Kennedys, Marlene Dietrich, Elizabeth Taylor, and others. Publicity photo.

PERSONALIZED TOURS

Riga | The French Riviera | Switzerland

History | Art | Fine Dining

for business travellers & holiday explorers

Do you have an important business partner coming and does he/she have a few hours to a couple of days to explore Riga and the Baltic states? And would you like to discover more of the cultural richness behind the glamour of the French Riviera and sophistication of Switzerland while holidaying / on a business trip there?

“As an art critic traveling around Europe I was lucky to always be hosted by a local artist, museum director, university professor... I enjoyed the feeling of being personally welcomed wherever I went and grew accustomed to always being given recommendations by insiders. In my tours – be it Riga, the Baltic states or the French Riviera - I offer to care for you and your guests in the same way: making your stay exciting and luxurious. Even if it's just for a couple of hours!”

The offer is extended to business travellers as well as holiday explorers.

Richard Wagner, Mikhail Baryshnikov, Philippe Halsman, Sergei Eisenstein, Sir Isaiah Berlin - Riga is associated with many world's stage culture personalities. Publicity photo.

Riga and the Baltic States

From amazing local food restaurants (Restorans 3, Ferma, Zoltners) to historical sites (Rundale and The Academy of Sciences) and award-winning modern architecture and interiors (Zana Lipkes memorial), to exquisite cultural events of contemporary and classical music, art and theater, Riga has become a destination for selective travellers. But often it requires a well-informed insider to enjoy these gems. Discover Riga, Jurmala, and the Baltic states in f âneur-style tours and engaging conversations with Anda Klavina. Your guests will be delighted!

The French Riviera

Discover the beach in Cap d'Antibes where Picasso painted, the casino in Juan Les Pins where Hemingway & Fitzgerald partied, the mountain passage in Eze where Nietzsche discovered ideas for his Zarathrusta, the villa in Roquebrune - Monaco where Coco Chanel expressed her talent in interior design. Meet descendants of some inf uential aristocratic families, visit the newly opened Carmignac art foundation located on a breathtakingly beautiful protected island, have dinner in places beloved by the band members of U 2 and The Beatles or run by Novak Djokovic.

With her rich knowledge of the cultural history of the region and know-how in local businesses built over ten years, Anda Klavina can add a whole new dimension to your French Riviera holidays.

Edward Quinn: Picasso with his children Claude, Paloma, and Maya at the beach Golfe Juan, Antibes - Cannes, 1954

Bellini Bar where in 1948 Bellini, the famous cocktail made out of champagne and peach was created. Publicity photo.

The Lodge, Sir Richard Branson's luxury ski chalet in Verbier, perched high in the Swiss Alps, it gives its guests a chance to meet and greet with the Virgin's creator himself. Publicity photo.

Switzerland: Geneva, Basel, Zurich

Switzerland has an astonishing number of hidden gems. In the Geneva lake area discover the newly built Charlie Chaplin museum, ski or take a walking route in the chic Verbier resort, where the British Royal family and Sir Richard Branson have their mountain getaways. Or visit the dam in Mauvoisin with astonishing artwork integrated into the landscape of the Swiss Alps. In Zurich visit places where Carl Jung, Lenin and Dada artists created their manifestos. In Basel discover the most visited art museum in Switzerland: the Bayeler Fondation, built by renowned architect Renzo Piano. And so much more.

The Tour

4 hours – to several days tours are available. They can be tailored to your interests or you can allow us to surprise you! Tours center around historical and contemporary art and architecture, famous personalities and nature sites. They include recommendations and organisation of dining, hotels, transportation, events, etc.

Languages: English, Russian, Latvian.

Pop-Art classic at the Art Monte Carlo fair

Your Guide*

An extensive traveller all her life and an experienced tour organizer, Anda Klavina has a cultural knowledge and a network of local experts – from historians and journalists to gallery and restaurant owners - that can make your experience unforgettable.

*Anda Kavina works with other local guides to welcome you at the most suitable time & place for you.

Previous Guests Say:

"Anda Klavina has been a wonderful host and ambassador for Riga and Latvia. She welcomed me recently for a conference on "Happiness". The quality of her general hospitality and the organisation of the event were truly top-class. I recommend her services without reservation!"

Dominique Turpin,

President of IMD Business School,
Lausanne

"We had such a great time in Riga and Anda is the best organizer! It was a joy to spend time with her and she made sure everyone got what they needed!"

Laura Day,

Wall Street intuitive, New York

SBM publicity photo.

"With her culture-competency Anda Klavina is art's ambassador for those who are attracted to allure of 'incomprehensible' and poesy of 'untamed.'"

Janis Avotins,

Artist, laureate of Jean Prat's Prize in Painting
2016

"Anda Klavina is like Tarkovsky's Stalker. She connects worlds."

Rauls Velins,

General Manager at Roche Latvia

PROGRAMME INFORMATION

Price: Hourly and Daily rate starting from 100 EUR

Includes: Guided Tour & Recommendations

Additional: Tickets, Travel, Dining

Location: Riga, Monaco, Basel, Zurich, Geneva

CONTACT INFORMATION

Anda Klavina Consultancy

Connecting People to Great Art anda.klavina@leaderswithguts.lv
www.leaderswithguts.com